

Recruitment Announcement

Seeking an Additional Lecturer

Prosthetics and Orthotics Program at Faculty of Medicine Siriraj Hospital,
Mahidol University, Bangkok Thailand

This program will seek accreditation by the International Society for Prosthetics and Orthotics (ISPO) at Category 1 Level

We are seeking a suitably qualified Prosthetist / Orthotist (University Degree) to undertake lecturing duties including:

- Development of lesson plans and teaching material
- Delivery of lectures and practical demonstrations
- Supervision of students in clinical work
- Assessment and examination of students

The language of instruction will be English and previous experience working in another culture or teaching would be an advantage.

The project duration is 4 years, but employment contract will be renewed on an annual basis from March 31st each year.

Details of the position and brief job description

1) Prosthetics and Orthotic Program lecturer at Faculty of Medicine Siriraj Hospital, Mahidol University

The appointee will be required to:

- a) Develop Thai PO bachelor's degree course.
- b) Conduct and supervise PO courses for PO students from first year to fourth year.
- c) Collaborate with the existing local staff in order to operate PO courses for PO students smoothly.
- d) Assist to improve P&O facilities belonging to school
- e) Train, advice, support Thai Assistant Lecturers and Thai Technicians.
- f) Cover teaching sessions as assigned by the Chief Lecturer
- g) Support National staff to prepare and conduct regular testing of student's progress.
- h) Support Thai Assistant Lecturers in the preparation of teaching materials and lesson plans to the standard required by the school.
- i) Arrange training for counterparts as required.
- j) Support National staff in the maintenance of all relevant records of tests and results.
- k) Act as an active member of the curriculum development management committee.
- l) Attend staff supervision and any other meetings required by management.

The Applicant should have:

- (a) Minimum of three years of clinical experience in orthotics and prosthetics
- (b) Certification or official qualification in prosthetics and orthotics
- (c) Bachelor's degree
- (d) A record of research and publication

Salary will be based on level of experience, it will be ranging from $36,000 to $42,000 per year.. Benefits include 6,000 USD per year for housing, 1,500 USD per year for health insurance. We will also provide 4,500 USD for moving expenses.

Applicants are invited to send in a detailed curriculum vitae via e-mail which is listed below and in duplicate if by post, and please include names and addresses of two references to the following address;

Mr. Thanit Surakool
Project Coordinator, Thai P&O School
Department Rehabilitation Medicine
Faculty of Medicine Siriraj Hospital, Siriraj Hospital
2 Prannok Bangkoknoi
Bangkok 10700 Thailand

Email: em16th@yahoo.com

The application deadline is September 29th, 2006, with a starting Date on 1st December, 2006.

The University will keep the data of unsuccessful candidates for up to one year. Applicants should indicate in the application if they do not consent to this.

Telephone interview maybe included a part of selection process.

If you seek any further information, please contact Mr. Thanit Surakool at em16th@yahoo.com or +66- 2-419-9790 between 8.30am- 4.30pm (Thai Time)